YOUR PATHWAY TO A LA TROBE DEGREE

OUR PURPOSE IS TO HELP STUDENTS REALISE THEIR DREAM OF STUDYING AT LA TROBE UNIVERSITY.

If you don't meet the requirements for direct entry into la trobe university, we have a range of pathway courses that will lead you to the first or second year of your degree.

La Trobe College Australia pathway courses range from eight to twelve months and have been developed in conjunction with La Trobe University to give students the skills and knowledge required to thrive at university and beyond.

Located on La Trobe's Melbourne campus in Bundoora, students will have all the advantages of studying at La Trobe, while accessing specialised support from the expert teachers at La Trobe College Australia. The college has a proud history of hosting students from many different cultural and religious backgrounds, whilst providing a high level of support.

ISLAMIC SOCIETY

La Trobe University currently has more than 70 clubs and organisations run by students, for students. La Trobe University's Islamic Society (LTUIS) is one of the largest and most successful of these student organisations. LTUIS is actively working to serve and facilitate the growing number of Muslim students at La Trobe University.

The society provides the following services and functions to members:
- Lectures on Islamic topics
- Weekly Halaqas and Quran classes
- Congregational Jumu'ah prayers
- Islamic awareness week
- Ramadan activities (including nightly iftar programs during the semester)
- Recreational events
- Joint events with other university islamic societies
- Camping and outdoor events.

LTUIS maintain the prayer and wash rooms. Students may carry out all prayers in these rooms, as well as study, or simply enjoy the free coffee, tea and biscuits available to members. Prayer rooms are equipped with heaters, fans, air conditioners, cupboards, refrigerators, microwaves, Islamic literature, chairs, tables and beanbags. Services are free to members only, so please complete a LTUIS membership form, and return it to the prayer room as soon as possible. Becoming a member of LTUIS is free!

Students are invited to sign up to the LTUIS email group by sending an email to:

RELIGIOUS FACILITIES ON CAMPUS

Melbourne Campus

Prayer and wash rooms are located in the HUED Building on Level 2, Rooms 201–202.

These facilities are next door to the Sylvia Walton Building, where students study English, Foundation and Diploma programs making this a very convenient commodity.

There are separate prayer areas for males and females, as well as separate washrooms with Wudu facilities.

Congregational prayers are conducted on Fridays at 1.20 pm in the brothers' and sisters' prayer rooms.

A security code is required to access these rooms.

To access the codes, contact the La Trobe University Islamic Society by email or through Facebook.
