IBRAHIM'S STORY

IBRAHIM HASSAN A ALJEDANY IS A CURRENT ELICOS STUDENT FROM SAUDI ARABIA. HE HAS BEEN LIVING IN AUSTRALIA SINCE JULY 2022. THIS IS HIS ACADEMIC JOURNEY SO FAR.

First off, I'd like to say I really enjoy learning at La Trobe College Australia, my English has really improved. The lifestyle here and local community made it easy for me to adapt and engage with all sorts of activities. La Trobe College Australia, in particular, made it easy to adapt to life here. When I decided to study here, I was faced with the choice of continuing my studies in my home country or to study abroad. I decided to move with my family. I have two kids. One in grade four and the other is in kindergarten. At first, I was worried about how well we would settle into life in Australia but the programs available here have been excellent.

My kids have settled in and are making friends. Their improvement in English is incredible, my youngest has even developed a little bit of an accent! I notice sometimes she uses slang words and copies her teacher's accent. Australia has changed their lives, which has also changed my life – and how I raise my children.

Since I started studying at La Trobe College Australia, I have made friends from day one. We have a WhatsApp group where we chat almost every day, we go out together and we hang out outside of class. The teachers really encourage us to do this. I'm thankful for the teachers, they make it easy for us to engage with each other both in and outside of class. In my class, we are a multicultural group. I have classmates from Chile and Cambodia. The other day I met someone from another class from Kenya! This multicultural environment is what makes us become open-minded about other cultures. My classmates are also incredibly hardworking.

I learn something new every day, even from new students. I have learned some great tips on writing and structuring essays from them. In return, I have helped them with some useful skills I have learned during my time here. We collaborate and help each other. We work really well together – it is like we've known each other for years! Each person brings their own ways of thinking which has positively changed the way we study. In class, we work together collaboratively and we receive a lot from feedback from each other.

After finishing my ELICOS course, I'll study a Master in Educational Leadership. I knew that if I chose to study in Australia, I would develop skills that could help me build my career and I could apply what I learned back in Saudi Arabia. I've been a teacher in Saudi Arabia for 13 years. I teach 2nd grade, Arabic and Quran. The education system is quite different here. I feel it is focused on students' skills and is quite student centric. The teachers have the capacity to change the lesson plan based on emergent student needs, which is an important detail.

“MY TOP ADVICE FOR STUDENTS THAT ARE LOOKING TO STUDY HIGHER EDUCATION IS TO START YOUR FIRST STEPS AT LA TROBE. IT WILL OPEN UP A WIDE SELECTION OF OPPORTUNITIES FOR YOU. YOU WILL HAVE GREAT EXPERIENCES HERE THAT WILL STAY WITH YOU FOR THE REST OF YOUR LIFE!”
